

Association for English Studies of India

Call for Publication in IJES

Original, unpublished and scholarly research papers, covering various genres of literatures in English/ English translation, standard book reviews and very good poems are invited from the Life-time Members of AESI, other academicians and creative writers for publication in the 58th annual volume (Vol. LVIII 2022) of The Indian Journal of English Studies, the prestigious journal of the Association for English Studies of India. The publications in the IJES shall be peer reviewed. The research papers should conform to the MLA Style published in the latest MLA Handbook and should not exceed 3000 words. Each contributor will have to furnish a declaration that his/her research paper is free from plagiarism. The paper should be accompanied by an Abstract in about 150-200 words along with 5 to 8 key words. The contributions should preferably be sent by e-mail to the email id: mrverma@gkv.ac.in. Those in hard copy should be sent by the registered post to the postal address given below. The articles must reach the Editor by 31st May 2022.

Prof. M. R. Verma

Caretaker Editor-in-Chief, IJES

T-1, Tulsi Palm Apartment, Dadu Bagh

Near Ramdev ki Pulia, Kankhal

Haridwar -249408 (Uttarakhand)