Glimpses of City

Niwari district, situated in the Bundelkhand region of Madhya Pradesh, is known for its rich history, heritage, and cultural significance. Formed in 2018, it lies close to the Uttar Pradesh border and is well connected to Jhansi. The district is renowned for Orchha, a famous heritage town celebrated for its palaces, cenotaphs, and temples, especially the Ram Raja Sarkar Temple, where Lord Rama is worshipped as a king. The historic Garh Kundar Fort reflects Bundela bravery and architecture. Niwari also includes Ladpura Khas, recognized as one of India's cleanest villages. Geographically, Niwari is located about 30 km from Jhansi and around 15 km from Orchha.

Our college

PMCoE Amar Shaheed Chandrashekhar Azad Govt. P.G. College, Niwari, Bundelkhand region Madhya Pradesh, established in 1967. Over the years, it has become a hub of academic excellence, offering postgraduate and doctoral programs in major disciplines like Arts, Commerce, and Science. The college is dedicated to fostering intellectual growth and holistic development, attracting students from across the region. With a commitment to fostering intellectual growth and holistic development, the college attracts students from across the region. It stands as a beacon of quality education, dedicated to nurturing future leaders and contributing positively to society.

Niwari is well connected by both rail and road (Bundelkhand Express Way), ensuring easy accessibility from major cities. Jhansi Junction, the nearest major railway station, is located about 30 kilometres from Niwari and offers excellent connectivity to cities such as Delhi, Howrah, Bhopal, Jabalpur, Jaipur, and Udaipur. In addition, Niwari Railway Station provides local and direct train services on select routes.
